Class Teacher (Full-time)

School: Golden Hill Steiner School
Applications Close: Friday, October 10, 2014

If you have a passion for teaching, a desire to work with the Anthroposophical understanding of child development and a love of children, we invite you to apply to become a class teacher at Golden Hill Steiner School.

The successful teacher will:

- Have Waldorf/Steiner teacher training and/or experience.
- Be able to reflect on practise, recognise personal strengths and weaknesses and to learn and act from that awareness.
- Be eligible for Teacher Registration in Western Australia (and received registration by 31st January, 2015).
- Have a passion for teaching in a progressive Waldorf school.
- Have excellent interpersonal skills with children, parents and colleagues.

This is a full-time position and we are seeking applicants who are committed to taking the challenging and rewarding journey with a group of children over the full primary cycle.

Golden Hill Steiner School is located amongst the Karri forests of South Western Australia. It is an important tourist town on the pristine Great Southern coastline. The school has more than 110 kindergarten and primary school children aged between 3 and 13. It has been experiencing a strong growth in demand which the school is focused on supporting. We are a full member of Steiner Education Australia and provide a quality Waldorf education programme.

Please forward your application, which includes an expression of interest / cover letter addressing the above points, current Curriculum Vitae and the names of three professional referees with contact details including one from your current school.
